I'm interested in serving on the following committee(s):

Membership

The Membership Committee monitors all aspects of membership, including recruitment, retention and education – welcoming new members, teach them about SCWCC and ensuring the new member experience meets everyone's expectation. They also serve as active ambassadors assisting with event registration and member liaisons to provide outreach and support to the business community.

Sponsorship

The Sponsorship Committee is responsible for the overall coordination and implementation of sponsorships for the SCWCC and its activities. This includes special events, workshops, guest speakers, networking events, community events, and valuable programs for our members.

Special Events – (Accolades)

The Special Events Committee plans, executes and increases participation for the annual Accolades Business Leader of the Year Luncheon, Holiday Gala, in addition to other, special high-profile events.

Programs

The Programs Committee designs and develops content for and plans and executes high-profile educational corporate events to support the strategic goals of the SCWCC. Committee members assist in conceptualizing events, curating engaging content and producing events. The committee works with SCWCC members to identify program topics, recruit speakers, and to create agendas for educational programs and monthly luncheons.

Young Professionals

The goal of the SCWCC Young Professionals is to bring together local young professionals looking to expand their network and to share ideas, goals and challenges with a diverse group of peers to advance professionally.

Public Policy Council

The Public Policy Council provides for the exchange of ideas and information concerning the business community in regard to public policy issues. The committee reviews the legislative agenda and works to inform and convey membership expectations to city, state and national elected officials on policy and legislative strategy.
